

Term 1

Penguin's Active Spellings

These are the words we learn during our active spelling lesson; they are different to the words the children are sent home for our weekly spellings.

Week one (double consonant)	Week two (adding ly)	Week three (ou)	Week four (ch making 'k' sound)	Week Five (‘gue’) slammed grabbed suffered regretting wrapping bigger planner shopper forgotten	completely hurriedly wrongly correctly brightly sweetly softly swiftly strangely dearly	astound fountain account mountain amount announce armour bounce bound sound	chemist chemistry chorus mechanic scheme character stomach technology technical technique	intrigue prologue technique analogue monologue epilogue oblique synagogue brogue morgue
Week six (y for ‘l’)	Week seven (prefix inter)	Week eight (prefix auto)	Week nine (adding -ation to make them nouns)	Week ten (-tion)
rhyme rhythm syrup symptom symbol physics crystal physical system crypt	interact international interrelated interfere intercept interchange interconnect interrupt intersect intermission	autobiography autography automatic autopilot autoalarm automobile autonomy autocue autofocus autocracy	equation punctuation hesitation population relation relaxation civilisation evacuation fertilisation animation	invention mention hesitation completion communication presentation vibration decoration population distraction