Parable of the Lost Son

A father has two sons. One son takes his money and travels to a far away place. He spends all of his money and becomes very poor.

He is so poor that he has to work for a farmer to live. He eats the scraps with the pigs.

Finally he goes home. His father is so pleased to see him that he forgives him and has a party to celebrate his return.

Jesus told this parable to explain that God always forgives those who are sorry for doing wrong.
