

Vocabulary
Word	Picture	Definition
Muslim		A follower of Islam.
Community		A group of people living, working, socialising together.
Belong		To be part of a group.
Worship		To sing, pray, read and share the word of God.
Mosque		The building where Muslim's worship and gather together.
Wudu		Before worship hands, face, arms and feet must be washed.
The 5 Pillars		How Muslims show their faith and belief in Allah.
Tradition		Events that people repeat in the same way over a period of time.
Birth rites		Traditions when a baby is born.

Islam is the religion of people called Muslims.

Muslims believe that Allah created the world and all should live in peace and harmony.

All Muslims follow the law of Allah and follow the straight path.

Birth rites

A Muslim baby is welcomed as part of the Muslim community. There are certain birth rites like family members whisper the call to prayer into the baby's ear just after they have been born then the baby is given a taste of something sweet.

Some Muslims shave the baby's hair and weigh it to give the weight in silver or gold to charity.

Babies are traditionally named after Prophets or other important Muslim figures.

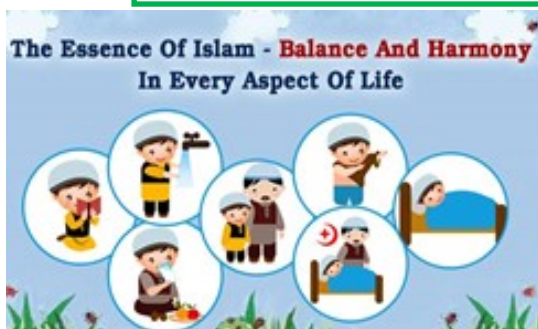

Vocabulary
Word	Picture	Definition
Muslim
		A group of people living, working, socialising together.
		To be part of a group.
Worship
Mosque
		Before worship hands, face, arms and feet must be washed.
The 5 Pillars
		Events that people repeat in the same way over a period of time.
Birth rites

Islam is the religion of people called

Muslims believe that created the world and all should live in peace and

All Muslims follow the law of Allah and follow the

Birth rites

A Muslim baby is _____ as part of the Muslim community. There are certain birth rites like family members whisper the _____ just after they have been born then the baby is given _____.

Some Muslims shave the baby's hair and weigh it to give the weight in silver or gold to charity.

Babies are traditionally named after _____ or other important Muslim figures.

