We are delighted with the number of donations we have so far received for our appeal to support the Afghan refugees based at Beckingham camp. Above is a photo of some of these! Many, many thanks! As they are gradually taking over our entrance way, we may arrange an interim collection and continue collecting any further donations until Easter.

I hope everyone is managing with their Lent challenges at home – lots of the children have been talking about these and saying that they have found the 24 hours without technology the most challenging of all! Please return any completed ones on the last day of term for entry in the Prize Draw.

This week has ended with the children wearing their party clothes to support Comic Relief's 40th birthday. We have been finding out where the money goes and realising what important work the charity does.

Many thanks for your continued support.

KS1 Class News

Pandas— We have had fun this week learning about floating and sinking. We explored lots of different materials to see if they float then designed and made a boat ready for the great Panda boat race!

Koalas— The Koalas have been learning about fruits and vegetables in DT and next week they will be making their own smoothies.

Polar Bears— Polar Bears have been musical superstars this week. They have learnt to follow musical notation to play a song on the glockenspiels and can now talk confidently about pitch.

We have also had a frog in the class for World Frog Day.

KS2 Class News

Tigers— We have been enjoying our topic on volume, measuring in ml and l and learning about capacity. We then used our knowledge of this to answer some mathematical word problems

Penguins— In penguins we have been learning about painting techniques and how to create shades and tints of colour to create a 3D effect. Oregon has then applied this in her homework

Elephants— In Elephant's classroom this week, we have explored artist Chila Kumari Singh Burman during our art lesson. Additionally, the children thoroughly enjoyed their lesson on Greek Gods and Goddesses and were extremely knowledgeable

Giraffes— The children loved their time at Bomber command earlier this week. We took part in activities using real life stories from those who were there in World War 2, walked around the peace gardens and used the interactive displays looking at first hand experiences
